

FIREWORKS

WOLF YOUR IDENTITY

1. Print out the mask and use scissors to cut on the directed line.
2. Put string through the holes, or hold it over your face.
3. Take a picture wearing the mask doing something weird/awesome, or somewhere weird/awesome. (it doesn't have to be FIREWORKS affiliated.) The possibilities are endless. Get creative, have fun, and get in to some trouble.
4. Send your picture along with your name, address and shirt size to WeAreFireworks@gmail.com with the subject "Wolf Contest" and we will pick what we think is the most creative/fun/weird etc.
5. Tweet your picture at us, Facebook it at us, whatever you want to do so the world can see it.

AND THE PRIZE IS...

A Run For Cover Records care package containing test presses, records, shirts, and anything else Jeff can find to throw in there for you. This could include stuff from all RFC bands, not just Fireworks.
